Plant your toes in the sand, order a cocktail (or three), and prepare for the hours to slip by at these nine beachfront restaurants and bars.

Half Shell Beach Bar, Anguilla

Since Hurricane Irma, Anguilla's prolific beachfront bars have returned, including this intimate, 30-seat spot on swoon-worthy Barne's Bay at the Four Seasons Resort and Residences, Anguilla. Chow down on the signature spiny lobster roll and sip on colorful drinks, including a spiked version of Dean's Green Supreme, made with fresh-picked leaves from local moringa trees, which are thought to have natural healing powers.
