

IMAGINE YOUR OWN PERSONAL SANCTUARY ON ANGUILLA

FROM THE WORLD'S LEADER IN LUXURY HOSPITALITY. ON THE CARIBBEAN'S MOST EXCLUSIVE ISLAND. THE PREMIER ISLAND LIVING EXPERIENCE YOU'VE ALWAYS DREAMED OF.

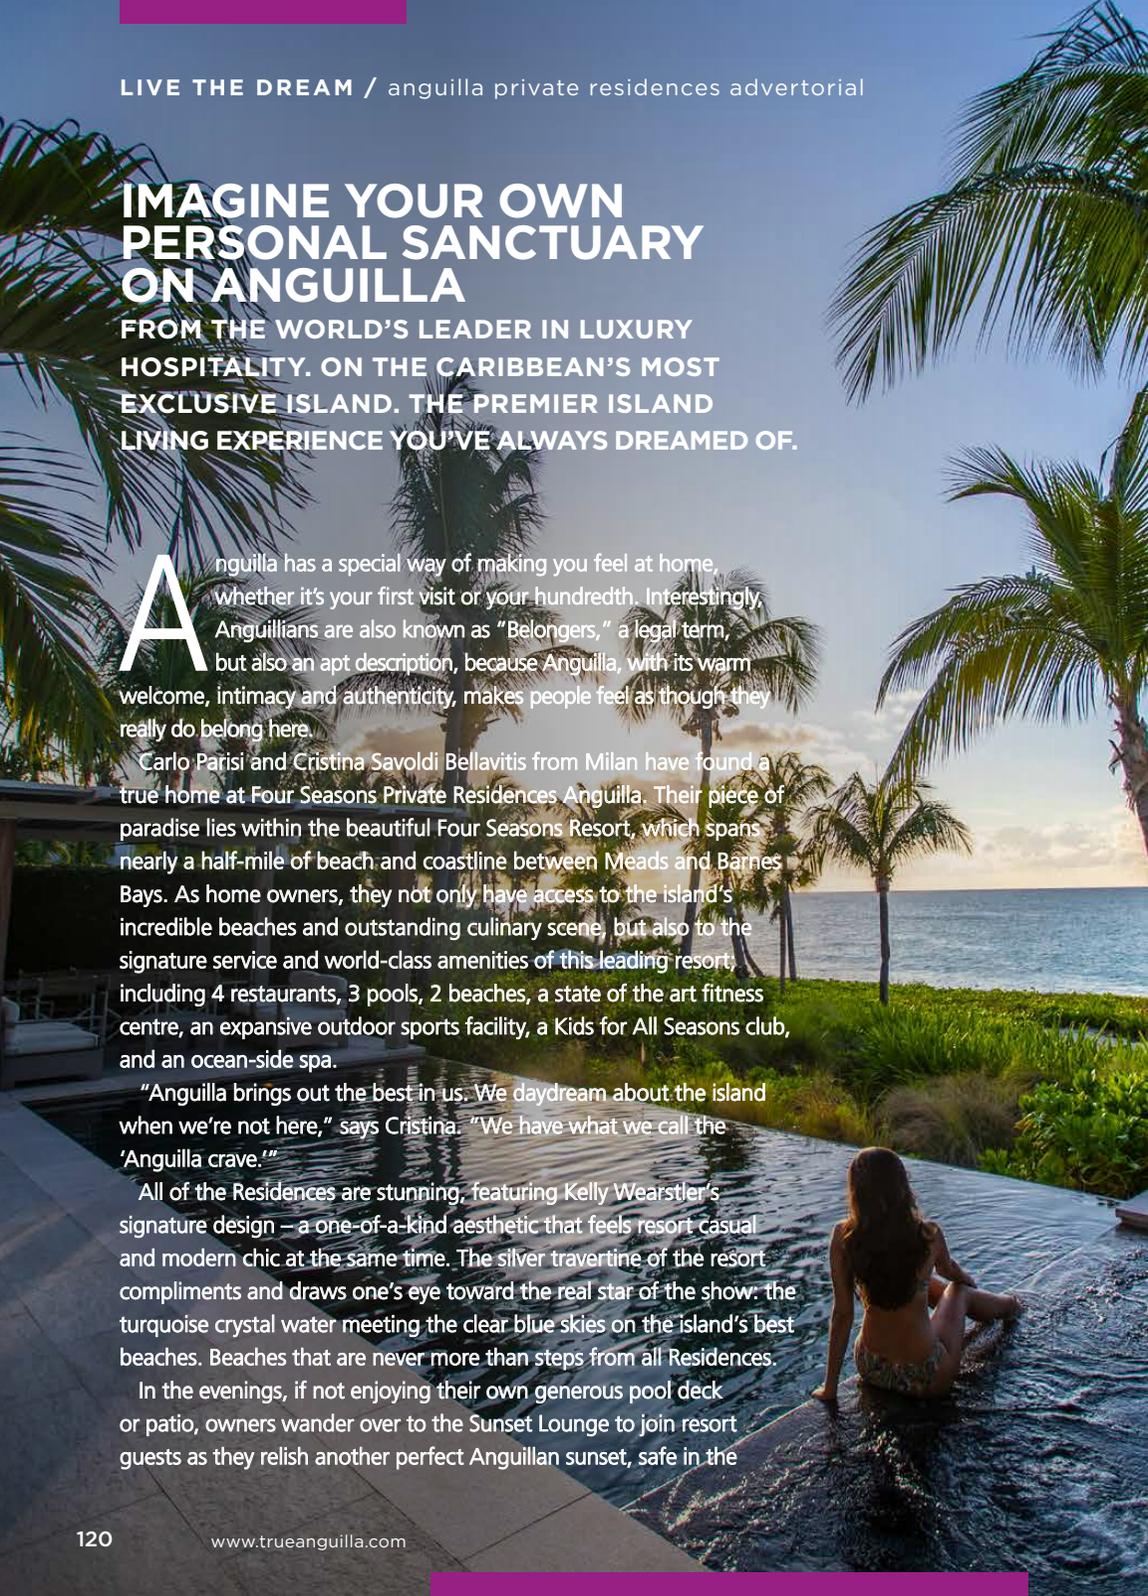

Anguilla has a special way of making you feel at home, whether it's your first visit or your hundredth. Interestingly, Anguillians are also known as "Belongers," a legal term, but also an apt description, because Anguilla, with its warm welcome, intimacy and authenticity, makes people feel as though they really do belong here.

Carlo Parisi and Cristina Savoldi Bellavitis from Milan have found a true home at Four Seasons Private Residences Anguilla. Their piece of paradise lies within the beautiful Four Seasons Resort, which spans nearly a half-mile of beach and coastline between Meads and Barnes Bays. As home owners, they not only have access to the island's incredible beaches and outstanding culinary scene, but also to the signature service and world-class amenities of this leading resort, including 4 restaurants, 3 pools, 2 beaches, a state of the art fitness centre, an expansive outdoor sports facility, a Kids for All Seasons club, and an ocean-side spa.

"Anguilla brings out the best in us. We daydream about the island when we're not here," says Cristina. "We have what we call the 'Anguilla crave.'"

All of the Residences are stunning, featuring Kelly Wearstler's signature design – a one-of-a-kind aesthetic that feels resort casual and modern chic at the same time. The silver travertine of the resort compliments and draws one's eye toward the real star of the show: the turquoise crystal water meeting the clear blue skies on the island's best beaches. Beaches that are never more than steps from all Residences.

In the evenings, if not enjoying their own generous pool deck or patio, owners wander over to the Sunset Lounge to join resort guests as they relish another perfect Anguillian sunset, safe in the knowledge that this is an experience they can repeat as often as they wish. An experience owners from all over the world crave when they are away from their Anguilla home-away-from-home.

Four Seasons Private Residences Anguilla are available for Full Ownership in a range of residential styles, with prices from $825K for a Deluxe Studio to $10M USD for a 5 Bedroom Beachfront Villa. Easy, turnkey ownership benefits include a permanent, on-site Director of Residences and dedicated Residential Service team always available to assist with owner needs. There is also an optional rental programme that allows owners to rent their space through the hotel when not in residence.

If you are seeking an island paradise to call home, now is the perfect time, because

"ANGUILLA BRINGS OUT THE BEST IN US. WE DAYDREAM ABOUT THE ISLAND WHEN WE'RE NOT HERE. WE HAVE WHAT WE CALL THE 'ANGUILLA CRAVE.'"

— Carlo Parisi and Cristina Savoldi Bellavitis
